SOUVENIR CARDS TO PINE STREET PEOPLE

Mr. Hartshorn Will Give Memento To-morrow Morning to All Who Attend.

Mr. W. N. Hartshorn, chairman of the International Sunday School Committee, has been at the Jefferson Hotel for some days, recuperating from an attack of illness. Mr. Hartshorn is a wealthy business man of Boston, but finds time to travel a great deal in the interest of the Sunday school work, and though he gives considerable time to the work, he refuses to receive one cent of compensation for his work with the Sunday school.

While Mr. Hartshorn is a hard worker for the interdenominational Sunday school movement and gives freely of his wealth for the furtherance of this work, he is none the less a staunch Baptist, and has been a member of the Pine Street Baptist Sunday school of Boston. This school has an enrollment of about 1,400, and for the year 1905 had an average attendance of 755.

There are only four other Baptist Sunday schools on this continent that had an average attendance for 1905 that was greater than the attendance at Rugles Street, yet Pine Street school, of this city, was one of the four that was larger.

The first of the week, when it was known to the Pine Street people that Mr. Hartshorn was sick at the Jefferson Hotel, a little box of flowers was sent him from the infant department of that school, and in recognition of this kindness Mr. Hartshorn telegraphed to Boston and had arranged to give a handsome souvenir card of "Flowers from Bethlehem" to each member of Pine Street Baptist Sunday school who will be present in the school to-morrow. The superintendent of the school thinks there will be a thousand, and present if the weather is good.

LEE CAMP IN CHARGE.

Veterans Will Direct Oakwood and Hollywood Memorials.

R. E. Lee Camp, No. 1, C. V. held its regular meeting last night. Commander James Vass in the chair. Commander John W. Gordon was selected as chief marshal for the parade of May 11, 1906. The camp will meet in uniform at St. John's Church, corner Twenty-fifth and Broad Streets, on that day at 4 o'clock P. M. and the church will furnish the service of the services of her druzi corps on that occasion. The camp will also attend the funeral of the late Mr. W. F. Gordon, which will be held at the Odd Fellows Hall at Highland Springs, Va., on May 6th, at 8 o'clock P. M.

The camp accepted the request of the Ladies' Hollywood Memorial Association to take charge of the Hollywood memorial and to attend the unveiling of the monument of ex-Governor and Major-General William Smith in the Capitol Square on Monday, the same day, the Hollywood memorial, and Judge Thomas S. Garnett will be chief marshal and Colonel John W. Gordon, assistant chief marshal of the parade.

Colonel T. M. R. Talbot will deliver an address on Chancellorville May 25th, to which the camp is invited. A committee, consisting of Commodore T. Cateby Jones, Dr. C. W. P. Brock and Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, were appointed a committee to request Mr. R. B. Valentine to read his poem before the camp on such Friday as may suit his convenience.

The thanks of the camp was voted to Miss Page Aylett Royall, sponsor, and Miss Rebecca Gordon, maid of honor, for the high compliment of being asked to attend the reunion at New Orleans.

The camp voted a contribution to Memorial Day at the Confederate Cemetery at Camp Chase, Va.

After adjournment of the camp the Ladies' Hollywood Memorial Association held their regular mass meeting.

TO ERECT MONUMENT TO POE IN RICHMOND

Charter Secured Yesterday By Poe Memorial Association. Prominent Men Interested.

The State Corporation Commission granted a charter yesterday to the Poe Memorial Association. The incorporators are Colonel Joseph E. Willard, Robert Edward N. Callahan, Colonel W. Gordon McCabe, Dr. C. C. Mitchell, Mr. Allen Poole, Mr. Charles Marshall Graves and Mr. James E. Cannon. The purpose of the corporation is to receive money and other property for the purpose of erecting a monument to Poe in Richmond, the home of the poet. It is well known that while Poe is generally admitted to be the foremost writer America has produced, there are few memorials of him anywhere in this country, save his own imperishable writings.

The school children of Baltimore some years ago put a modest stone on his grave in that city, the actors of New York gave a bust of the great poet to the Metropolitan Museum, the home of the poet. The Poe Memorial Association of the University of Virginia, has presented to its alma mater an excellent bust by Zolnay. These are all the vest army of admirers of Poe's memorial poems and tales of the poet in his honor.

Those gentlemen of the corporation authorized yesterday, in company with a great multitude of others here and elsewhere, have felt that Richmond, the place where Poe was born, in fact, his real home, is the fittest location for a worthy and lasting monument which shall do honor to the city in honoring her great adopted son.

After a bitter fight, which has not yet ended, and which bids fair to go on for some time to come, the pleasure resort known as Fulton Park, near Highland Springs, was sold to the People's Pleasure
